10:08 AM Catalina: i have a blackberry now! getting mugged was great me: sweet yo lol somebody got it for you?
Catalina: my supervisor felt so bad for me she gave me a blackberry me: I'm playing with my cyber-army http://www.dailykos.com/story/2010/3/26/851032/-Wikileaks-Releases-Statement-After-U.S.-Intel-Detains-Editor Catalina: awesome 10:09 AM kill all i love the "daily kos" very clever i cant find my running shoes anywhere me: just recruited a systems security/risk assessment analyst with 15 years experience as a consultant for various governments and large corporate entities 10:10 AM Catalina: so i am going to say they were in my stolen bag and im sure somebody will get me new ones you are krazy kos everyday for you mr. saldaña me: YOUR RUNNING SHOES WERE STOLEN OMG I WILL BUY YOU NEW ONES POOR THING Catalina: you toook my last name when we got married 10:11 AM me: this is the beginning of her resume compliance projects.

This person is now one of my operatives Catalina: ooohhh penetration testing?? sounds hot me: yeah, I can handle that myself 10:12 AM but now I can get all fixed up with a TOR extension that will make me appear to be connecting to the internet from random points on the globe Catalina: the rest of it sounds pretty boring to me but im not sure what a lot of it means 10:13 AM thats cool actually im not sure if i told you this before but i hack into almost everyones email at work i shouldnt be typing this it would be pretty useful if it looked like i was doing it from a different location 10:14 AM me: it means I've got a high-dollar government consultant providing me with a number of very nuanced information warfare strategies and whatnot well, we can fix you up with that now Catalina: really?
that would be awesome me: Stein can also do that but dealing with him is irritating Catalina: its not that i hack into peoples email its more like people use stupid passwords me: if your bosses can read you chats you're fucked anyway Catalina: so its not my fault 10:15 AM me: also I just recruited former Newsweek Baghdad correspondent Michael Hastings Catalina: my boss has alzheimers and cant read anything unless its about a mile away from him me: who's also going to blurb my book YOUR BOSS IS A FAG
Catalina: probably 10:16 AM i am very good friends with the computer guy here so im prety safe i think in fact i got him hired i have a lot of dirt on him and he has a lot of dirt on me too though :( 10:18 AM how was your white trash chat date last night?
10:20 AM me: good, we talked about my cyber army and meeting up on Sunday to go to the aquarium Catalina: really?
thats not fair!! i love aquariums

10:21 AM i even have a favorite toad the surinam toad me: she can get me into all of these things for free as she's a member of the whole cultural/museum shebang up here Catalina: from brazil me: that's pretty nuanced of you Catalina: i love octopus and jellyfish! me: I'm going to add her to my list of Project PM Concubines 10:22 AM jellyfish are assholes Catalina: in fact my good friend Don Ly knows all about my obsession with sea creatures the deep sea angler fish 10:23 AM and anytime he sees an article about a colossal squid with eyes the size of dinner plates he will immediately forward it to me jellyfish are beautiful me: beautiful things are often assholes Catalina: you are jealous me: so?
Catalina: true me: I'm the jealous type Catalina: so true so am i 10:24 AM i am going to pout because youve never taken me to the aquarium me: you've never taken me to the aquarium, either Catalina: i asked you to museums and you always refused you rejected me!! how do you think that made me feel?
10:25 AM ill tell you how:
me: I think I was addicted to heroin at the time and did not like leaving my base of operations Catalina: inferior i thought it was because im mexican and youre a racist so we are star crossed lovers me: I did watch lesbian porn with you last weekend Catalina: i dont remember it really 10:26 AM i only remember unico me: you were on bennies and heroin and had been drinking and I was on the first two but had not been drinking also, speed unico was very impressive Catalina: more than the lesbian porn?

10:27 AM me: yeah, I'd seen the lesbian porn before, you asked to watch porn and I showed you my favorite Catalina: how are we not dead? me: fate Catalina: celebrities are pussies me: I know Catalina: overdosing all the time 10:28 AM we arent very big either, so it shouldnt take much 10:29 AM is Mirna back?
10:30 AM me: from Austin? yeah, she got back Sunday night but she's always gone 10:31 AM Catalina: shes not a very good caretaker then i am currently upset with larry 10:32 AM me: why;s that?
Catalina: he said something about me being a victim of domestic violence and needing help, he sounded condescending and doesnt know what the hell hes talking about 10:33 AM and he should not be talking on this issue though he never hit me when we were together there are other pretty terrible things he did me: I see Catalina: and i dont like being called a victim 10:34 AM me: you should date pathetic white hipster artist nerds who will bore you with their niceness Catalina: i beat him as hard as i could too im a lesbian now after im done being celibate 10:35 AM if i ever return to the world os sex it will be with women thats probably why i wanted to watch the lesbian porn so if you know any cute girls you can set me up with ill be available in maybe 6 months me: Mirna made out with a stripper last night and did her coke 10:36 AM maybe Shanna will be interested she's dated girls Catalina: shanna who? me: my part-black girlfriend A Catalina: not the one from texas Karen hated me: no lol Catalina: oh ok that sounds good 10:37 AM me: or we could set you up with an OKCupid profile and you can seize all the women you want Catalina: no i dnt want to do that maybe in 6 months me: you want the excitement of chance Catalina: okcupid scares me people have expectations expectations scare me 10:39 AM spontaneity is more my style me: I know

mine too but it's also my style to have lots of girls to touch 10:40 AM Catalina: well thats where we differ i can barely stand to be touched unless im high or drunk or something me: and to maximize the time/utility ratio I know
10:41 AM Catalina: whatever works for you send me a text so i have your number in my new blackberry me: word
